

The Center for Hope:

Looking to hire a Certified Peer Recovery Coach/ Certified Peer Support Specialist. These specialists, support individuals with struggles pertaining to mental health, and substance use disorder.

The primary scope of work for this position is to collaborate and work with the professionals staffed at the Behavioral Health Crisis Center, in order to help people in the community who are in a mental health or substance abuse crises. Those in this position will provide support in the community to individuals after discharge from Behavioral Health Crisis Center and actively encourage them to participate in activities at the Center for Hope.

This position will be supervised and managed in a coordinated effort between the leadership team at the Center for Hope and the Crisis Center.

Major Duties and responsibilities of the position:

Must be currently a Certified Peer Recovery Coach or Certified Peer Support Specialist and/or willing to take training for such.

Must be able to pass an enhanced background check.

Have a basic understanding of computer skills.

Willing to help assist clients with setting up outpatient services in the community.

Must be willing to work in conjunction with Medical professionals and Case Management

Must be able to identify quickly the barriers in the community that a client may have with basic needs and basic knowledge to help assist and educate the client on how to minimize those barriers.

Must have a working vehicle and willing to transport peers in the community.

Must have an insured vehicle and able to obtain commercial-level insurance coverage.

Must have a clean driving record

Fuel stipend is provided.

Respond as needed to referrals from community stakeholders

One on one support to those in need

Participate in regular clinical supervision

Collect data and complete reports in a timely manner

Participate in professional development trainings

Important willingness to be a team player.

For this position, we do require a resume sent with a cover letter to us. In the cover letter, please explain what value you can bring to a client in crisis and how you believe that you fit in with crisis prevention.

Please send a resume to
Jamesm@rhscares.com