

Peer Support

We are a healthcare facility that focuses on helping people manage mental, emotional and physical stress through counseling, case management, CBRS and Peer Support services. Here at the One Love Agency, we pride ourselves in being a tight-knit team capable of working towards a common goal. We are moving quick and looking to expand our company into new ventures. We are in search of a Peer Support worker who is multi-talented and able to handle a wide array of tasks willingly and easily. Experience will always play a huge factor in the decision-making process, but personality and company "fit" speaks volumes to us.

If you are interested in growing with us and becoming an integral part of our team dynamic, please send us your resume today.
